Dear IceMen Fans

A Letter from Ron Geary, Owner & President

Welcome to the IceMen 2012-13 pro hockey season!

We, as an organization are thrilled to have you with us to share in the excitement of our inaugural campaign as a bona fide member of the Premiere 'AA' ECHL.

Due to your great support, IceMen hockey continues to grow in leaps and bounds as our organization continues its full and total dedication and commitment in becoming an integral part of the fabric of our great Evansville and Tri-State region.

Through our move to the ECHL, the IceMen have now become linked to the National Hockey League as demonstrated by our new NHL affiliations with the Columbus Blue Jackets and the St. Louis Blues. In this 2012-13 season, you will have the opportunity to watch and cheer future NHL stars who launched their pro careers right here in Evansville with our IceMen.

Moreover, our head coach Rich Kromm has assembled another top-rate, dynamic, competitive team that is sure to generate lots of thrills and wins this season. League scoring champion and All-Star Todd Robinson returns to lead our club as do All-Star defenseman Matt Gens and Players' Player Award recipient Philippe Plante. Sprinkle-in the talented new standouts the coach has signed plus the outstanding young pro prospects entrusted to us by Columbus and St. Louis and you have the outstanding ingredients for a winning recipe.

On the ice, our archrivalry with the Fort Wayne Komets continues and this year we begin new rivalries with such division rivals as the Cincinnati Cyclones, Toledo Walleye and Kalamazoo Wings.

IceMen hockey fans, our first-ever season in our home of the Ford Center produced some of the highest attendance numbers in the CHL as our team also attained the distinction of being, by far, the most vastly-improved team in the league.

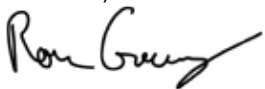

Our approach this season to all of our loyal and devoted fans is the same and, in fact, even better than last year. We will continue to introduce more new and exciting promotion nights as our organization presents 36-home games with each treated as a major entertainment event. Our goal remains to bring you the best, foremost night of entertainment in town from the moment you arrive to the time of the final curtain. Our central theme is for you to have great fun in enjoying the IceMen game night experience.

Prior to the start of this season, the IceMen organization earned the prestigious honor of winning Platinum in the Courier Press Annual Reader's Choice Award for "Best Local Sporting Event." We have all of our many IceMen fans to thank for this special award.

From the entire IceMen family, thank you ever so much for being here with us tonight. We fervently hope that you do come back and see us often.

Enjoy your night with your pro hockey team---YOUR EVANSVILLE ICEMEN!!!!

Sincerely,

Ronald Geary
Owner/President

Terry Ficorelli has now become a 39- year veteran of professional hockey broadcasting. Over the course of his 39- years spanning some five decades, "Fic" has demonstrated extraordinary endurance and staying power, having called a remarkable 3,421 consecutive games.

Affectionately known as "The 3000 Man," Ficorelli began his career calling games for the Kalamazoo Wings. During his extended 11 year tenure with the Wings, "The Fic" was behind the microphone to describe three Wings championships in consecutive fashion.

In 1985, he proceeded on to the AHL where he would perform his craft for five more seasons. Initially with the Detroit Red Wings primary affiliate, the Adirondack Red Wings, Terry spent a single year there. That season, the Adirondack Red Wings captured the league's most coveted crown, the Calder Cup.

It was on to Baltimore from there as he called all of the action for the AHL Skipjacks for four years. During his time with the 'Jacks,' "Fic" was part of the NHL Pittsburgh Penguins' organization and later the Washington Capitals.

After his stint in Baltimore, Terry moved back closer to his roots of the Midwest, when he touched down in Cincinnati. His impact in the Cincinnati market was instant and immediate. In his five years on the Cincinnati sports scene, Fic earned the prestigious honor of "Best Sports Announcer" in Cincinnati three times. Perhaps even more impressive is the fact that Terry became the only non-player in the history of the IHL to win the coveted I. John Snider Award for "Outstanding Community Service," accomplishing the feat during the 1993-1994 season.

Terry's next move was to Muskegon in the 1995-96 season where, again, he attained an immediate impact, capturing UHL honors in the form of Broadcaster of the Year and Public Relations Director of the Year in his first season. He was named the Public Relations Director of the Year, again in 1998-1999 and became the only two time recipient of the Broadcaster of the Year, winning the award in 2001-02.

Terry's resume is rich and replete with an array of career achievements and accomplishments. He has been a part of eight championship teams, including four in six years with the Muskegon Fury (1998-1999, 2001-2002, 2003-2004, and 2004-2005); three Kalamazoo crowns (1978-1979, 1979-1980 and 1980-1981); and Adirondack (1985-1986).

Through his 15 year stint in Muskegon, he attained many of his greatest career milestones as "The Voice" of Muskegon Hockey; including his 1000th consecutive Fury broadcast as well as his 2000th and 3000th consecutive overall career game broadcasts.

In 2010-2011 Terry was named the new Vice-President Communications/Broadcasting for the newly minted Evansville IceMen of IHL/CHL. Terry brought to this organization his vast experience and knowledge of the game including broadcasting, marketing and communications. He promptly proceeded to place the IceMen organization on the Evansville landscape by his development of a fully operational communications and media relations department as well as standout IceMen radio broadcast presence in the Tri-State area, developing the first-ever Evansville IceMen Radio Network for the organization. Terry also presides over, directs and coordinates all of the IceMen marketing activities in his vast and varied repertoire in serving the ECHL club.

Once again in this season, the IceMen first-ever in the ECHL, Terry's voice will be heard virtually all over the Tri-State region. He will be behind the "mic" for every game broadcast on flagship radio stations WEOA-FM 98.5 and WEOA-AM 1400 as well as on network affiliated stations, WLME-FM 102.7, ESPN Radio, "The Game," Owensboro, KY, Fox Sports Radio WMSK-AM 1550 in Morganfield, KY and WITZ-AM 990 and WITZ-FM 104.7 in Jasper, IN. "Fic" will, once again, be the host with the most for the popular Monday night radio show, "IceMen Live Presented by Coors Light" from 7:00 pm to 9:00 pm live from Show-Me's East, also on WEOA-FM 98.5 and WEOA-AM 1400.

During the season, even when there isn't a game, fans can tune-in for the latest updated news on the IceMen through "Fic's" daily reports which can be heard on 18 radio stations throughout the Tri-State area, including flagship WEOA-FM 98.5 and WEOA-AM 1400 at 4:20 pm; WSON-AM 860 and WSON-FM 96.5 in Henderson, KY; WITZ-AM 990 and WITZ-FM 104.7; WMSK-AM 1550 and WMSK-FM 101.3, as well as the Townsquare Media family of radio stations; WGBF-AM 1280; WGBF-FM 103.1; WKDQ-FM 99.5; WJLT-FM 105.3; WDKS-FM 106.1 and in Owensboro on WBKR-FM 92.5 and WOMI-AM 1490. Also this season, the IceMen daily update reports are available on WYFX-FM 106.7, ESPN Radio; WRAY-AM 1250 in Princeton, IN and WLME-FM 102.7, Owensboro, KY.

Coach Kromm

A Proven Winner

The 2012 – 2013 Season will mark Rich Kromm's third season with the Evansville Icemen, and first season in the ECHL. After a much improved second season which ended in disappointment, Coach Kromm has the team reloaded and looks forward to a successful inaugural ECHL season. The 48 year old coach has had much success throughout his playing and coaching career and hopes this season marks better fortune. As head coach and general manager of the team, he was a key part of re-signing stars Todd Robinson and Matt Gens.

Coach Kromm's story begins on the ice as he had a career in which he suited up for over 400 NHL games. He compiled 72 goals and 109 assists in 408 games with the New York Islanders and Calgary Flames. Also, he comes from a great line of hockey. He is a second generation professional hockey coach. His father, Bobby, coached the Winnipeg Jets to the World Hockey Association's AVCO Cup playoff title in 1976 and he also coached the Detroit Red Wings for three seasons, including being named NHL's Coach of the Year once with the Jack Adams Award.

Coach Kromm began his head coaching career in Greensboro, North Carolina, where he mentored the prospects for the NHL Florida Panthers through AHL affiliate Carolina Monarchs. It was on to Muskegon in 1998 and during his first year the team won the Tarry Cup (best regular season record), went on to win the Colonial Cup Playoff Championship and was named UHL Coach of the Year. Since his first season as the head coach, he compiled quite a resume which includes being the all-time most winning coach in Muskegon history!

A native of Trail, British Columbia, Coach Kromm and his family have moved to the Evansville area to be closer to the pond. He and his wife Jackie have four children – Erica, Alex, Brian and Natalie.

Welcome

from ECHL Commissioner Brian McKenna

Dear ECHL Fans,

I am pleased to officially welcome you as the Premier 'AA' Hockey League celebrates its 25th Anniversary season, making it the third-longest tenured professional league behind only the National Hockey League and the American Hockey League.

As we enter our 25th season, I would like to recognize and thank League founders and ECHL Hall of Fame members Henry Brabham, Bill Coffey and Pat Kelly for their work in laying the foundation of the ECHL a quarter century ago.

There has been a great deal of transition and change in the minor league hockey landscape over the past several seasons. As the economy continues to gradually recover and grow, the ECHL is well positioned to provide outstanding entertainment value for our fan base.

In addition to providing affordable family entertainment to more than 84 million fans since it began, ECHL teams have become an important part of their communities by donating more than $23 million and countless hours to charity the last six years.

The ECHL has become an integral part of the professional hockey player development process as 490 players have gone on to play in the NHL after the ECHL including 23 in 2011-12. In addition to these players, countless officials, coaches and front office staff have moved on to the AHL and NHL. For the 2012-13 season, 11 of the 30 AHL head coaches and almost one quarter of the head coaches in the NHL have ECHL ties.

Since it began in 1988-89 with five teams in four states, the league has grown into a coast-to-coast league with 23 teams in 16 states in 2012-13. This season, we welcome our newest members, the Evansville IceMen, Fort Wayne Komets, Orlando Solar Bears and San Francisco Bulls.

We congratulate the Florida Everblades on winning their first Kelly Cup championship, winning the clinching game in overtime in front of standing-room only crowd at Germain Arena.

The ECHL has been represented in the last 12 Stanley Cup champions including in 2012 with Los Angeles assistant coach Jamie Kompon, players Dwight King, Jordan Nolan and Conn Smyth Award winner Jonathan Quick, manager of communications/broadcasting Jeremy Zager and scouts Steve Greely, Mark Mullen and Mark Yannetti. The ECHL had affiliations with 26 of the 30 teams in the NHL in 2011-12, marking the 15th consecutive year for affiliations with at least 20 teams in the NHL. For the 23rd season in a row, the ECHL was represented on the AHL champion with nine players on the Calder Cup champion Norfolk Admirals.

Thank you on behalf of the ECHL and its teams for your continued support and we hope that you and your family enjoy following your favorite team through what promises to be a fantastic 25th season of ECHL hockey.

Sincerely,

Duane Lewis

Ford Center

The Home of the IceMen

The 2012-13 hockey season marks the second year of the state of the art Ford Center, in downtown Evansville.

Not only do the Evansville Icemen call the Ford Center their new home, but it is also the home for the University of Evansville Men's and Women's basketball teams. Many concerts and other special events utilize the arena, bringing in exciting opportunities for the community.

This gem of Evansville nestled in the heart of the downtown area has over 20 loge boxes and luxury suites, over 20 different restrooms, 100 wheelchair spaces and companion seats, 2 escalators and 4 passenger elevators. It holds roughly 9,400 hockey fans, seating for up to 9,600 during basketball games and concert attendance is maxed out at around 11,000 spectators.

The Ford Center was the recipient of the Prime Site Award during its first year of operation in Evansville, IN. Facilities Magazine has bestowed Prime Site Awards annually since 1994 to the top entertainment venues in North America.

Todd Robinson

Tape-To-Tape Todd

The ultimate perennial All-Star center, Todd Robinson, will be embarking on his 14th pro season and his second under the IceMen banner for the 2012-2013 ECHL Season. The 5-8, 175lb right-hander has amassed an astronomical 1,226-points in 871-career games, averaging an amazing 1.41 points per game. Included in his total numbers are 334-goals and 892-assists as he has averaged over an assist a game as well in his career.

In 2011-12, his initial campaign with the IceMen, the Trail, B.C. native was again at the top of the standings, capturing his fifth league scoring crown and his first-ever in the CHL. Playing in all 66-games, Robinson authored 92-points on 23-goals and a league-best 69-assists with his 30-PPA also pacing the loop. In claiming his fourth league scoring title over the past six years, he essayed 10-more overall assists and 8-more PPA than the rest of the entire league. Finishing a very close second in the CHL/MVP balloting, "T. Rob" was named to the league's First All-Star Team, appearing in the CHL All-Star Game in Arizona.

In the CHL's annual "Best of the Best Poll," he captured the #1 honors for "Best Overall Player," "Best Playmaker," and "Best on the Power Play." He was #2 for "MVP to his Team," Face-offs, Stick handler and Team Leader. The IceMen Team Captain finished #2 as well in the league's annual "Three Stars" leaders. Three times, he was acclaimed CHL Player of the Week, marking the first time in six years that an individual player had captured the coveted award on a trio of occasions. In November 2011, he was saluted as the CHL's #2 Star and in February 2012, he earned #3 Star plaudits. "T-Rob" also assembled the longest point streak in the league, composed of 17-games from 2/3/12 to 3/3/12. Moreover, he added a 10-game streak as well from 12/23/11 to 1/17/12. T-Rob also engineered assist streaks of 11 and 9-games respectively.

His 9-PPG, 23-multiple point games and 4/7 OTSO scoring proficiency all topped the team while his 4-GWG and 3-SHG ranked runner-up best. His five game goal streak equaled the best on the club from 2/17/12 to 2/26/12. He also orchestrated a 4-game streak; from 2/7/12 to 2/14/12. Robinson had a team leading 5-point masterpiece in a 7-5 IceMen triumph 11/25/11 at Rapid City, collecting as well, three 4-point performances and seven 3-point game outputs. Three more times he registered 4-assists in a single game. His durability was uncompromised as well as he was one of only three IceMen players to see action in all 66-games last season.

Josh Beaulieu

Ford Center's First Goal

Josh Beaulieu returns to Evansville as a man on a mission. After etching his name forever in Evansville hockey history with the First Goal scored in the Ford Center, Josh hopes to build on the success of his first season clad in the Evansville colors. In 58 games for the IceMen last season Josh had 48 points from 24 goals and 24 assists. "Beau" proved himself as hard charging first liner, playing right wing alongside IceMen Captain Todd Robinson.

The rugged 6-1, 190lb former 2005 fifth round draft choice of the NHL Philadelphia Flyers will return to Evansville with an impressive resume primarily consisting of significant game experience at the higher levels of the professional hockey ranks. The Comber, Ontario product launched his pro career in the AHL where he gained seasoning with the Flyers top AHL affiliate, the Philadelphia Phantoms from 2007-09 and later the Adirondack Phantoms in the 2009-10 campaign. In three AHL seasons, he saw considerable action in 136-league games.

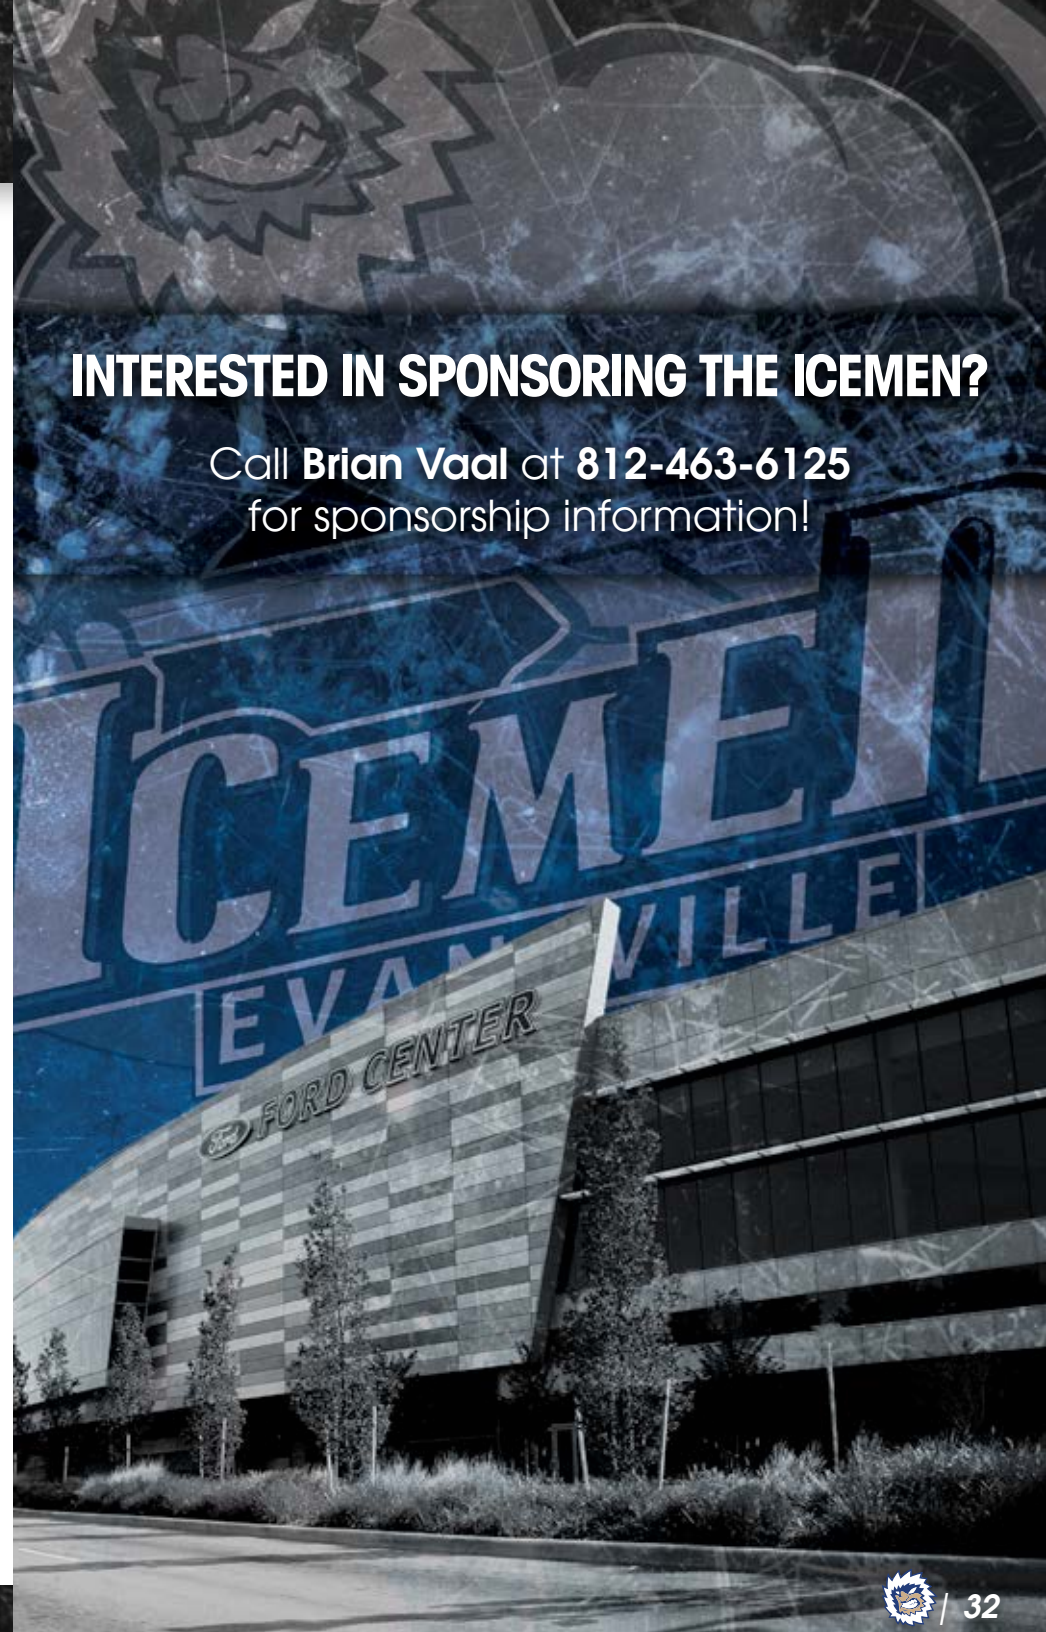

Josh came to Evansville in an off season trade with the Rapid City Rush. During his time with Rapid City Josh played 65 games and had 26 points from 11 goals and 15 assists.

Josh and his family will always have a connection to the Tri-state as his second son was born here during the 2011-2012 season.

Six Men on a Hockey Team

Here's What They Do...

GOALTENDER

The goaltender's main responsibility is to keep the puck from entering the goal and there are no restrictions on the methods he can employ. His offensive contributions are typically limited and usually consist of occasionally passing the puck up to his defensemen or forwards to start a rush. A goaltender almost never scores a goal and only on rare occasions does he receive credit for an assist.

DEFENSEMEN

Basically the two defensemen try to stop the incoming play at their own blue line. They also block shots, clear the puck from in front of their goal and watch the opposing forwards. Offensively they carry the puck up the ice or pass the puck up to the forwards, then follow the play into the attacking zone and try to keep it there.

CENTER

The center operates mostly up and down the middle of the ice and usually leads his team's attack by carrying the puck. He sets up plays by exchanging passes with his two wingers and tries to steer the play in toward the opponent's goal. Defensively he tries to keep the play in the attacking zone by harassing the opponent's puck carrier. This is called forechecking. After the opposition works the puck out of their end of the rink, the center tries to interrupt the play as it moves through the neutral zone and into his defending zone. This is called backchecking.

WINGS

The two wings move up and down the sides of the rink with the direction of play. Offensively they skate abreast of the center, exchanging passes with him while positioning themselves for a shot on goal. Defensively they watch the opponent's wings and try to disrupt their playmaking and shooting as the action moves back toward the defending zone (backchecking).

Despite its fantastic speed, hockey is really an easy game to watch. A few basic rules govern the sport and once you grasp the important fundamentals, you will enjoy the game even more.

PENALTY CALLS

Boarding - Called for any action which causes an opponent to be thrown violently into the boards.

Charging - Taking a run at an opposing player using more than three strides to build up speed.

Cross Checking - A check or block delivered by a player with both hands on the stick and no part of the stick on the ice.

Delayed Penalty - Referee extends his arm and points to the penalized player until the penalized team regains possession of the puck.

Elbowing - Called when a player uses an elbow to impede an opponent.

High Sticking - Making contact with an opponent while carrying the stick above shoulder height.

Holding - Clutching an opposing player's body with the hands, arms, or legs.

Hooking - The use of the stick or blade to impede the progress of an opponent.

Interference - When a player impedes the progress of an opponent who is not in possession of the puck.

Kneeing - Called when a player uses a knee to impede a player.

Misconduct - 10-Minute or disqualification penalty for excessive or additional misbehavior on the ice.

Roughing - Called for engaging in fistcuffs or shoving.

Slashing - Striking an opposing player with the stick.

Spearing - Called for using the stick like a spear.

Tripping - Called for using the stick, arm, or leg to cause an opponent to trip or fall.

Unsportsmanlike Conduct - Called for actions such as disputing an official's decision, grabbing the face mask of a player, etc.

Washout - Called when a goal is disallowed. When used by linesmen, it means there is no icing or no offside.

Philip Plante

#24

As a top defenseman, Philip Plante, is beginning his 14th pro campaign and his second in the coat of arms representing the IceMen, The 6-0, 200lb bulwark of the blue line continued to add to his rich resume of outstanding career accomplishments and achievements in his IceMen premiere season of 2011-12, being paramount to his team's lofty second place finish in the CHL's Turner Conference.

In the 2011-12 campaign, the left-hand shooting defenseman fashioned 36-points in 65-games, composed of 12-goals, 24-assists with 50-PIM. His stellar +8 rating tied for second best for Evansville, while his goal output matched Matt Gens for team top perch amongst the blue line brigade and his 7-PPG were also tied for second most for the IceMen and second most for all CHL league defensemen. As one of the IceMen's top Penalty Killing units, the native of Greenfield Park, PQ topped all CHL defensemen with 4-SHA (shorthanded goal assists), ranking second overall. Moreover, Plante (PLONTE) ranked league-wide runner-up in goal-scoring shooting percentage among the back-liners at 12/86 for a mark of an efficient 14.0%. He was listed 12th overall in CHL scoring for the defense. His best premium plus performances of the last year were produced abroad, earning him healthy +3 ratings in an IceMen 6-2 victory at Bloomington on 1/6/12 and a 4-1 triumph 2/11/12 at Tulsa.

Plante's exemplary leadership and consummate professionalism did not go unnoticed as his superlative season was crowned when he was honored by his teammates with the IceMen second annual Players' Player Award for 2011-12.

For his entire pro career, Plante's numbers read: 848-games; 113-goals; 314-assists; 427-points; 667-PIM.

ECHL HALL OF FAME

The fifth class of the ECHL Hall of Fame was inducted at a luncheon in Charleston, S.C. on Jan. 18, 2012. The inductees were ECHL co-founder Bill Coffey, former ECHL players Sheldon Gorski and Dave Seitz, former ECHL player and coach Bob Woods, and the ECHL's all-time winningest coach John Marks. Members of the Hall of Fame are honored on-line at ECHLHallOfFame.com and at the Hockey Hall of Fame in Toronto.

Kelly Cup Championship

The Florida Everblades captured their first Kelly Cup title in team history, defeating the Las Vegas Wranglers 4 games to 1 in the 2012 Kelly Cup Finals. Florida clinched the championship with an overtime goal from Brandon MacLean in front of a standing-room only crowd of 7,290 fans at Germain Arena on May 23, 2012. Goaltender John Muse was named Most Valuable Player of the Kelly Cup Playoffs after posting an 11-2 record with a 1.78 goals-against average and a save percentage of .939.

THE ECHL CELEBRATES ITS 25TH ANNIVERSARY IN 2012-13 AND IS THE THIRD-LONGEST TENURED PROFESSIONAL HOCKEY LEAGUE BEHIND ONLY THE NATIONAL HOCKEY LEAGUE AND THE AMERICAN HOCKEY LEAGUE. After beginning with five teams in three states in 1988-89, the ECHL has grown into a coast-to-coast league with 23 teams in 16 states with the addition of the Evansville IceMen, Fort Wayne Komets, Orlando Solar Bears and San Francisco Bulls for the 2012-13 season.

The ECHL is the primary development league for the American Hockey League and the National Hockey League. The ECHL has had affiliations with more than 20 teams in the NHL each of the last 16 seasons. Through the 2011-12 season, there have been 490 players who have played in the NHL after the ECHL including 223 in the last seven seasons. Twenty-three former ECHL players made their NHL debut in 2011-12, and there were six players who played in both the ECHL and the NHL.

ECHL teams have contributed more than $23 million in cash and donations to charitable and non-profit organizations in the last seven years, including over $2.7 million in 2011-12.

The ECHL averaged 4,281 fans per game in 2011-12, marking the eighth consecutive season and the 20th time in the last 22 years that the ECHL has averaged over 4,000 fans.

THANK YOU TO OUR FANS!

Matt Gens

#22

Embarking on his seventh pro campaign overall and his second season wearing the colors of Evansville's navy, sky and white wardrobe, Matt Gens returns to IceMen for the 2012-2013 ECHL Season. The highly-skilled yet rugged workhorse of the blue line brigade is coming off a career best season, as a proven professional defenseman.

During the 2011-12 Season, Gens achieved league wide honors as a member of the CHL IceMen squadron. The 6-0, 190lb, right-hand shooting standout was selected as a member of the CHL All-Star Team for the CHL's annual All-Star Game played in Arizona on 1/11/2012, as well as capturing the circuit's grand prize as CHL top scoring defenseman. Matt's 47-points for the total campaign, on 12-goals, 35-assists topped the loop. Moreover, his 16-PPA ranked second among defensemen and his 35-total assists and 181-SOG ranked him third in both of those categories. The Baudette, Minnesota native attained even more league-wide recognition, as he was voted #1 in two major categories in the CHL's annual "Best of the Best Poll." Gens laid claim to accolades for "Best Offensive Defenseman" and "Best Body checker."

On the IceMen team-wide front in 2011-12, Gens list of achievements is equally impressive. He reigned supreme as the victor of the IceMen Best Defenseman Award, tying for the team's top spot in goal scoring by the defense with 12, while his 6-PPG ranked as third best for the Evansville club. His stellar +4 rating in a 6-3 victory on 11/19/11 against Missouri, matched a team single-game individual best and his 10-SOG on 3/16/12 at Rapid City was foremost for one game. The veteran defenseman delivered one

2-goal game last season in a brilliant 4-point performance that earned him the game's #1 Star, spearheading his club to a 4-1 triumph over Dayton on 12/9/11. Meanwhile, his 3-GWG featured a late dramatic OT/WG 11/18/11, leading the IceMen to a thrilling 2-1 triumph at the Ford Center against Missouri.

The former 2002 ninth round, 278th overall draft pick of the NHL Vancouver Canucks has made his major mark through a career which embodies the rare combination of offensive skills and talents along with a physical presence and prowess in the defensive side of the game.

After a superb four-year collegiate career at Division I St. Cloud State of the highly-prestigious WCHA Conference, Gens launched his pro career in the UHL where he achieved All-Star status with the Rockford IceHogs. In his second season with the Illinois-based contingent, he spurred the 'Hogs to the 2006-07 UHL Colonial Cup Championship, topping all league defensemen in playoff point-scoring with 13-points in 17-games on 2-goals, 11-assists. During the regular season, he, again, finished in the top 10 in league-wide scoring among defensemen with 39-points in 75-games on 8-goals, 31-assists, 79-PIM and sterling +21 rating.

Johnathan Quick
Los Angeles Kings

ECHL IN THE NHL

Former Reading Royals goaltender Johnathan Quick (pictured at left) received the Conn Smythe Trophy as Most Valuable Player of the 2012 Stanley Cup Playoffs, as he helped lead the Los Angeles Kings to the first Stanley Cup title in team history. Quick became the second consecutive former ECHL player to win the award, following Boston Bruins goaltender Tim Thomas, who won in 2011.

The ECHL has been represented on the Stanley Cup champion each of the last 12 years. In 2012, in addition to Quick, the league was represented by Kings' assistant coach Jamie Kompon, players Dwight King and Jordan Nolan, manager of communications/broadcasting Jeremy Zager and scouts Steve Greeley, Mark Mullen and Mark Yannetti. The ECHL has been represented on the American Hockey League's Calder Cup champion for the last 23 years, including with nine players and assistant coach Mike Flanagan on the 2012 champion Norfolk Admirals. In the last eight seasons, the ECHL has had more call-ups to the AHL than all other professional leagues combined with over 3,500 call-ups involving more than 1,800 players.

CONGRATULATIONS WES GOLDIE

The ECHL congratulates Wes Goldie on becoming the league's all-time leader in goals scored. Goldie scored his 369th career ECHL goal on March 24, 2012 at Ontario, breaking the previous mark of 368, held by 2009 ECHL Hall of Fame inductee Rod Taylor. Goldie ended the 2011-12 season with 370 career ECHL goals.
